Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Mohammed Al-Halbousi: Fallujah, Commends Anbar’s Ongoing Recovery

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with former Speaker of Parliament and Head of Taqaddum Party, Mr. Mohammed Al-Halbousi, in Fallujah District, Anbar Province. The meeting was also attended by Anbar Governor Mr. Mohammed Nouri Al-Dulaimi and Provincial Council Chairman Engineer Omar Mishaan Dabbous.

The discussion focused on the overall situation in Anbar, emphasizing the importance of sustaining the governorate’s current trajectory of stability and development. The two sides also exchanged views on key national challenges and upcoming political milestones.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem stated that the meeting falls within the broader framework of national dialogue and the strengthening of unity among political forces. H.E. praised Anbar’s ongoing recovery across the security, service, and social sectors, describing it as a testament to the resilience of the Iraqi people and their ability to overcome crises and build a stable and prosperous future.

H.E. also commended the efforts of local leadership in Anbar and called for greater coordination and joint action to serve citizens and reinforce stability in the governorate and beyond.
