Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets MP Ahmed Al-Jubouri, Stresses to Strengthen Stability, Accelerate Provinces Reconstruction

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Member of Parliament Ahmed Al-Jubouri (Abu Mazin), Head of the National Masses Party. The two discussed the latest political developments in Iraq, preparations for upcoming elections, and the service and development conditions in Salah Al-Din Governorate.

His Eminence emphasized that all political forces share the responsibility of maintaining and reinforcing the current atmosphere of national stability. H.E. stressed the importance of expediting reconstruction efforts and improving public services, especially in Salah Al-Din, which still requires greater attention and support to meet the needs and aspirations of its residents.

On the elections, H.E. underscored the need for competition to be grounded in practical programs and a genuine commitment to public service. H.E. called for avoiding any rhetoric or actions that could disrupt democratic progress or undermine the integrity and transparency of the electoral process.

H.E. also highlighted the unique social diversity of Salah Al-Din, describing it as a source of strength for both the governorate and the country. H.E. affirmed that, when managed wisely, this diversity can contribute to long-term stability, peaceful coexistence, and sustainable development.
