Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Religious Authority Sheikh Abdullah Jawadi Ameli, Discusses Challenges Facing Islamic Nation

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with the prominent religious authority, His Eminence Sheikh Abdullah Jawadi Amoli (may his grace endure), for a dialogue on the pressing challenges confronting the Islamic nation, particularly those facing the followers of Ahl Al-Bayt (peace be upon them).

Both parties emphasized the critical role religious institutions play in raising awareness and confronting ideological and doctrinal challenges, with special attention to protecting the youth from the harmful influence of foreign ideas infiltrating Muslim societies.

During the meeting, His Eminence underscored the need to intensify efforts in Islamic and cultural outreach. H.E. also highlighted the importance of coordination and synergy among various Islamic institutions to formulate a unified vision capable of confronting the current threats to the values and core principles of the Ummah.
