Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets MP Mehdi Amerli, Political Leaders in Salah Al-Din

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with MP Mehdi Amerli, Head of the Badr Parliamentary Bloc, along with a number of political leaders from Salah Al-Din Province. The meeting focused on the latest political developments in the country and the current situation in Salah Al-Din across various sectors.

His Eminence emphasized the importance of managing the province’s diversity in a way that safeguards the rights of all its communities. H.E. also stressed the need to support the families of martyrs and honor their sacrifices, praising the heroic role played by the cities of Salah Al-Din in the fight against terrorism.

H.E. further called for strengthening security, political, economic, and social stability in the province. H.E. highlighted the significance of preemptive operations in countering terrorism, cutting off its sources, and fostering social cohesion and national unity.