Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Dr. Jamal Al-Karbouli, Stresses Upcoming Elections Importance for Stability

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, received Dr. Jamal Al-Karbouli, Head of the National Movement for Reform and Development (Al-Hal), to discuss recent developments in Iraq’s political landscape and ongoing preparations for the upcoming electoral process.

His Eminence emphasized that the forthcoming elections represent a pivotal milestone toward establishing lasting stability across the country and play a vital role in promoting comprehensive development throughout all provinces.

H.E. underlined the need for serious engagement in this democratic exercise, urging for active participation and competition based on practical programs and realistic visions. H.E. also affirmed that preserving the current stability is a shared responsibility that requires unified efforts from all national forces.

H.E. called for empowering the provinces to fulfill their constitutional entitlements, ensuring continued public service delivery, and launching additional development projects to improve their service and economic conditions.
