Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Former Prime Minister Adel Abdul Mahdi, Stresses Consolidating Stability, Informed Electoral Participation

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met today with former Prime Minister Adel Abdul Mahdi to conduct an in-depth discussion on the current political landscape in Iraq and to exchange views on key national and regional developments.

The meeting also touched on the atmosphere of the blessed Arbaeen pilgrimage, which witnessed a remarkable display of national and global unity, embodied by Iraqis through inspiring acts of generosity and service that reflected their deep sense of belonging and commitment.

His Eminence emphasized the importance of safeguarding and reinforcing the stability Iraq currently enjoys—stability achieved through the heavy sacrifices of the Iraqi people across all components.

In this context, H.E. renewed the call for broad, effective, and informed participation in the upcoming elections, stressing that they represent a genuine opportunity to transform the present stability into lasting stability and to strengthen Iraq's democratic and institutional path.
