Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Sheikh Abdullah Al-Humaidi Al-Jarba, Stresses to Sustain Tribal Bonds, to Strengthen Social Cohesion

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met on Wednesday morning, September 24, 2025, with Sheikh Abdullah Al-Humaidi Al-Jarba. His Eminence recalled the long-standing ties with this prominent tribe throughout key milestones in Iraq's history, underscoring the importance of maintaining strong social relations among tribal sheiks and dignitaries across all communities, as they play a vital role in reinforcing national unity.

H.E. highlighted Iraq's current stability in political, social, security, and economic aspects, pointing out that the next major challenge lies in advancing public services and driving reconstruction and development. H.E. stressed that effective services are the gateway to prosperity and public satisfaction with the political system.

H.E. also renewed the call for broad, effective, and informed participation in the upcoming elections, emphasizing the importance of encouraging citizens to uphold their democratic and constitutional right to vote. H.E. urged voters to choose the right candidates within the right lists and to empower the most capable individuals to best represent their constituencies.
