Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Al-Kadhimi: Elections Key to Consolidating Stability, Upcoming Challenges Are Service-Oriented, Developmental

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with former Prime Minister Mr. Mustafa Al-Kadhimi. The meeting reviewed developments in Iraq’s political landscape and the upcoming national entitlements, particularly the democratic process represented by the forthcoming elections. His Eminence emphasized their importance in strengthening and sustaining the current stability, stressing the need for broad participation. H.E. pointed out that the challenges ahead are primarily service-oriented and developmental, underscoring the necessity of success in the field of public services, as it represents a crucial entry point for achieving public satisfaction and reinforcing trust between citizens and the state.
