Sayyid Al-Hakeem Extends Condolences to Indonesia over School Collapse Victims, Affirms Solidarity with Deceased’s Families

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, extended his condolences to Indonesia following the tragic collapse of a school. In a statement, His Eminence said:

“We express our deepest sympathy to the leadership and people of Indonesia over the tragic collapse of a school in one of its provinces, which resulted in the loss of lives and injuries to others.

We affirm our solidarity with the families of the victims and pray to the Almighty to protect our country, the Muslim nations, and all nations of the world from harm and misfortune.”
