Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Haider Al-Yasiri:Calls for Fair Competition, Informed Participation to Strengthen Trust

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with independent politician Haider Al-Yasiri to discuss developments in Iraq’s political landscape and the challenges of the upcoming phase, particularly the forthcoming elections.

H.E. emphasized the importance of conducting the electoral competition responsibly, promoting a spirit of fair competition among all participating political powers, and avoiding practices of political undermining. H.E. also stressed the need to build and strengthen public confidence in the electoral process.

H.E. renewed the call for broad, active, and informed participation in the elections to ensure their success and credibility.
