Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Upholding Constitutional Deadlines Reinforces Stability, Preserves Citizens Stability

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, received Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali, Secretary-General of Asa’ib Ahl Al-Haq Movement, at his office this morning. The two sides exchanged congratulations on the successful completion of the parliamentary elections and praised the Iraqi people for showcasing a bright image of their democratic experience, commitment to the political system, and dedication to the peaceful transfer of power.

They also commended the efforts of the Electoral Commission, security forces, media institutions, civil society organizations, and international monitoring networks for ensuring a smooth and transparent electoral process.

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem underscored the importance of turning electoral pledges into actionable programs that genuinely serve Iraq and fulfill the aspirations of its people, affirming the need to adhere to constitutional deadlines in carrying out upcoming entitlements to strengthen political stability and maintain public trust in the democratic process.
