Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Mandalawi Discuss Electoral Results, Upcoming Stage Priorities

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, welcomed the First Deputy Speaker of the Parliament, Mr. Muhsin Al-Mandalawi, as part of ongoing engagement with political leaders. Their discussion covered the election process and its outcomes, approaches to strengthening stability, and the priorities for the period ahead.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem noted that the recent elections reflected a positive image of Iraq’s stable environment and the people’s commitment to the democratic path, praising once more the collective efforts of all relevant sectors that ensured the success of this experience and reinforced its positive accumulations.

H.E. emphasized that the next stage must center on revitalizing the economy, diversifying revenue sources, and advancing public services. H.E. also called for strict adherence to constitutional timelines in completing upcoming obligations and forming a government capable of meeting citizens’ aspirations and consolidating stability.
