Sayyid Al-Hakeem Lauds Elections Success, Affirms Upcoming Phase Needs Stability Enhancement, Economy Diversification

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, welcomed today the Head of Khadamat Alliance, Mr. Shibl Al-Zaidi, and Dr. Mohammed Jameel Al-Miyahi, Head of Wasit Ajmal Bloc. Their discussion addressed current political developments, the outcomes of the parliamentary elections, and the priorities required for the next phase.

His Eminence noted that the recent elections projected a positive image of Iraq’s stable environment and demonstrated the Iraqi people’s commitment to democratic practice and the peaceful transfer of authority. H.E. commended the substantial efforts made by the Electoral Commission, the security services, the media, and monitoring organizations in ensuring the success of this important national process.

H.E. added that the upcoming stage calls for reinforcing stability, revitalizing the economy, diversifying revenue sources, and improving service delivery. H.E. also underscored the importance of adhering to constitutional timelines and forming a government capable of meeting the aspirations of the Iraqi people.
