Sayyid Al-Hakeem Congratulates National Political Council Formation, Affirms Importance to Enhance Stability, Facilitate Government Formation

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received in His office in Baghdad today, Sunday, 23 November 2025, the Head of the Al-Jamhaeer Al-Wataniya Party, Mr. Ahmed Al-Jubouri (Abu Mazin). His Eminence extended congratulations on the formation of the National Political Council, which brings together the respected Sunni component's political powers. H.E. noted that this development marks a significant step that strengthens Iraq's stability and supports the timely formation of the next federal government in line with constitutional timelines.

H.E. underscored the need to place national priorities at the forefront in the coming period, highlighting that voter turnout across the country reflects the Iraqi people's firm commitment to the democratic path and their support for the political system, demonstrating a strong sense of public awareness and responsibility.

H.E. further emphasized the importance of addressing internal and external challenges with a spirit of national partnership and constructive political cooperation, as this approach is essential for sustaining stability and meeting the Iraqi people's aspirations for security, development, and reliable public services.
