Sayyid Al-Hakeem Discusses Constitutional Challenges, Affirms Stability Consolidation, To Turn to Sustainable Development with Hadi Al-Amiri

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, received in H.E.’s office in Baghdad on Wednesday morning, 26 November 2025, the Secretary-General of Badr Organization, Mr. Hadi Al-Amiri. The discussion covered the latest political developments and the upcoming constitutional milestones. His Eminence highlighted the need to uphold the designated timelines and honor the voters’ will, as these principles form the basis of a stable and credible democratic process.

H.E. emphasized the importance of safeguarding the stability achieved through the sacrifices of the Iraqi people, noting that this stability is shaped by interconnected security, political, and social factors. H.E. pointed out the need to build on this progress and transform it into enduring stability that supports security and development.

H.E. further noted the positive messages conveyed by the recent elections—chief among them the public’s clear commitment to the democratic path and collective support for the political system. H.E. called for dedicated efforts to meet the aspirations of the Iraqi people and to address emerging challenges in a manner that strengthens trust between the state and society and protects national gains.
