Sayyid Al-Hakeem receives Reconstruction and Development Coalition delegation headed by Al-Fayyadh, underscores unifying Coordination Framework, resolve constitutional entitlements

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a delegation from the Reconstruction and Development Alliance led by Mr. Falih Al-Fayyadh. The meeting covered developments in the political landscape in Iraq and the broader region, as well as the upcoming constitutional entitlements.

H.E. emphasized the importance of maintaining the unity of the Coordination Framework and preserving the achievements accomplished so far, underscoring the need to finalize constitutional obligations within their stipulated timelines. H.E. called for prioritizing the public interest over individual considerations and for building upon positive progress to move from a state of fragile stability to one of sustainable stability—meeting the aspirations of the Iraqi people across all components.

H.E. noted that Iraq is experiencing a state of security, political, and social stability, evidenced by the voter turnout in the recent elections and the Iraqi citizen's firm commitment to the electoral and democratic path.
