Sayyid Al-Hakeem receives Al-Samarra’i, stresses the need to adhere to constitutional timelines, translate positive outcomes into action plans to strengthen stability

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers’ Alliance, received Mr. Muthanna Al-Samaraai, Head of Azm Alliance, at His office in Baghdad. Their meeting included a discussion on the latest political developments in Iraq and the region, along with the constitutional obligations expected in the coming phase.

H.E. emphasized the need to adhere to constitutional timelines and to resolve the necessary decisions without delay, calling for the positive outcomes achieved so far to be channeled into actionable programs that advance the country’s and citizens’ interests.

H.E. further highlighted the significance of the messages reflected in the recent parliamentary elections, especially the broad participation seen across all fields. H.E. stressed the importance of confronting current challenges and urged all parties to shoulder their responsibilities in preserving stability, reinforcing it, and moving it toward a stage of lasting and sustainable stability.
