Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Former Prime Minister Mustafa Al-Kadhimi, Stress Completion of Constitutional Entitlements, Preserving Stability

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with former Prime Minister Mustafa Al-Kadhimi to discuss developments in Iraq's political landscape and the nature of upcoming entitlements.

The meeting emphasized the importance of completing electoral entitlements and adhering to constitutional timelines, particularly regarding the presidencies, while calling for prioritizing the public interest over private gains.

H.E. also highlighted the need to remain vigilant regarding challenges facing Iraq, foremost among them economic pressures and regional escalation rhetoric, stressing the national responsibility to safeguard stability.
