dSayyid Al-Hakeem Receives Phone Call From Egyptian Foreign Minister, Discusses Bilateral Relations, Regional Developments

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received a phone call from His Excellency the Egyptian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Badr Abdelatty, during which Iraqi–Egyptian relations were discussed, alongside key regional and international developments.

His Eminence affirmed the depth of the strong bilateral ties between Iraq and Egypt, stressing the importance of moving forward in upgrading these relations to strategic levels that serve the interests of both countries and their brotherly peoples.

H.E. pointed to the necessity of continuous coordination in positions, particularly in light of the rapid developments taking place in the region, emphasizing the need to unify efforts to reduce escalation and prevent the expansion of tensions.

H.E. also praised the pivotal role played by sisterly Egypt in maintaining regional security and stability, while underscoring that Iraq is intensifying its diplomatic efforts to reach political solutions that contribute to safeguarding the security and stability of the region.
