Sayyid Al-Hakeem Shares Iftar with Orphans, Affirms Real Disability Stemms from Ideology and Behaviour

At an orphanage in Baghdad, during an iftar banquet arranged in their honor, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, extended congratulations on the arrival of the blessed month of Ramadan. H.E. expressed heartfelt happiness at sharing the occasion with them, describing Ramadan as a season of divine hospitality—the boundless generosity of the Most Gracious, Exalted be His Majesty.

H.E. noted that Allah, Glorified and Exalted, showers His servants with special grace throughout this sacred month, transforming every breath into an act of praise and even sleep into worship. H.E. encouraged seizing the spiritual atmosphere through sincere supplication and by strengthening one's closeness to Allah Almighty.

H.E. praised the remarkable success rates achieved by the orphans, affirming that whenever Allah withholds something, He grants in return what is greater and more enduring. H.E. emphasized that the real disability is that of mindset and behavior, calling for hope, optimism, firm trust in Allah the Almighty, and reliance upon Him, coupled with unwavering determination and lofty ambition.
