Iraq Leaders Congratulate Al-Hakeem on Re-Election as Al-Hikma National Movement Head, Affirm Role in Consolidating Stability, Dialogue

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem received several congratulations following his re-election as Head of Al-Hikma National Movement for a new term. President of the Republic Nizar Ahmadi, Prime Minister Mohammed Shia' Al-Sudani, The Speaker Heibet Al-Halbousi, and Kurdistan Region President Nechirvan Barzani, alongside a broad number of political leaders and figures, all extended their congratulations on the occasion.

Those offering their congratulations affirmed that the renewed confidence placed in Sayyid Al-Hakeem reflects his standing in the political arena and his active role in serving Iraq, underlining the importance of his approach – one grounded in moderation, dialogue, and the reinforcement of political stability. They expressed their anticipation of continued cooperation and joint efforts in the service of the country's interests and the advancement of its path toward construction and stability.