Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Strengthening State Powers MPs Oversight, Legislative Role

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met this morning with the parliamentary bloc of the National State Powers' Alliance in a meeting that carried a twofold message: praise that raises the bar and responsibility that admits no excuse.

H.E. commended the performance of the bloc's MPs across the political, legislative, and oversight levels, affirming that this performance is not an achievement to be celebrated but a trust that demands intensification and continuity. H.E. called for deepening cooperation with other political blocs and engaging seriously in the work of specialized parliamentary committees, noting that real politics is made inside committees, not from podiums.

H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem pointed to the scale of challenges surrounding Iraq – politically, economically, and financially – and declared an unequivocal position: "Supporting Mr. Ali Al-Zaidi in forming the government is not a political stance – it is a national obligation imposed by the gravity of this phase."

H.E. placed the weight of historical responsibility on political blocs in the face of these challenges, stating clearly: "Those who hold a legislative position must not hesitate to remove obstacles before the government, and must be partners in resolving the crisis – not in creating it."
