His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received this evening at his office in Baghdad the Secretary-General of Asa'ib Ahl Al-Haq, His Eminence Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali.

On the file of government formation, H.E. affirmed that supporting Mr. Al-Zaidi's government and enabling it to confront challenges can only be achieved through unity of ranks and the setting of priorities, stressing that political fragmentation at this stage is a luxury the citizen's interests cannot afford.

In the context of discussing the Coordination Framework, the two leaders affirmed that the unity of the Coordination Framework was never merely a political arrangement but a genuine guarantee of stability that has proven its worth during the most difficult of phases, affirming that preserving this unity is both a political and national obligation.

H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem concluded by affirming the importance of coordinating positions and unifying visions with the remaining political forces across all components, stating: "Iraq cannot be built by a single component."
