Sayyid Al-Hakeem Affirms Unifying Ranks, Strengthening Institutional Work Within Coordination Framework Importance

His Eminence Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the Head of the State of Law Coalition, Mr. Nouri Al-Maliki, and the meeting addressed a number of current political files.

H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirmed during the meeting that completing the government cabinet represents the highest priority in this phase, calling for the continuation of political dialogues among forces to appoint competent ministers capable of managing their institutions with efficiency and resolve amid current developments.

H.E. stressed the importance of the unity of the Coordination Framework, regarding it as one of the most prominent pillars of political stability, and affirming the necessity of the Framework's transition to an institutional state through the activation of specialized institutions and committees tasked with distributing roles and duties, contributing to decision-making, and unifying ranks.

On the regional front, H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem expressed optimism that the ongoing negotiations between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the United States of America will lead to an agreement that contributes to achieving regional stability and reflects positively on the stability of countries across the world.
