H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirmed the importance of the Popular Mobilization Forces law in preserving the political system and safeguarding this security institution as part of the security system, operating under the command of the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces, and commended the steps taken toward consolidating weapons under state authority. H.E. also called for the care of the families of martyrs and the distribution of land plots to them and to Commission members – plots that are fully serviced so as to provide them with a dignified life.
