Sayyid Al-Hakeem Affirms Project's Legacy Preservation, Boast Symbols, History

As part of his visit to the Holy Najaf Governorate, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a large gathering of the organizational leadership of Al-Hikma National Movement in the Governorate, extending his blessings on the auspicious Eid Al-Ghadeer – the greatest Eid of Allah, the day of the completion of the religion, the perfection of divine grace, and the Lord's acceptance of Islam as our religion through the Wilaya of the Commander of the Faithful, Ali (PBUH).

H.E. affirmed that Ghadeer speaks to the political Imamate of Ali and Ahl Al-Bayt (PBUT), noting that belonging to these great figures is a blessing, and that sectarian identity is a religious and social enrichment while sectarianism is a curse, calling for respect and pride in the occasions of other components in a manner that strengthens national unity.

H.E. also referenced the project of Shaheed Al-Mihrab as a branch of the tree of the Ahl Al-Bayt project (PBUT), calling for its preservation and pride in its history, symbols, and leaders, and for disregarding accusations and attempts at defamation, affirming that time will prove that Al-Hikma's project offers solutions and strategic visions validated by recent experiences.

H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem stressed that the approach of moderation and centrism is the path to achieving stability, independence, and prosperity, affirming the importance of acquainting oneself with Al-Hikma's project and promoting it, and placed that responsibility upon the organizational leadership, calling for an active and impactful presence and engagement with positivity and optimism.
