

Sayyid Al-Hakeem Renews Government Support, to Target Major Corruption Files

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, discussed with Head of the National Masses Party Ahmed Al-Jubouri (Abu Mazin) upcoming political milestones and completion of the government cabinet, as H.E. stressed the appointment of ministers to vacant ministries capable of dealing with this stage and its challenges.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem renewed his support for the government in its reform and anti-corruption path, renewing his call to target major files.

The Head of the National State Powers' Alliance also called for legislating the provinces law, noting that the law would grant local governments their constitutional and legal powers and maximize their revenues, enabling them to provide services.
