

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Citizen Service, Field Engagement Foundation for National Project

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of organizational leaderships of Al-Hikma National Movement in the Rusafa sector of Baghdad, commending all efforts made in service of the national project, while citing the role played by Ahl Al-Bayt (PBUH) in championing the cause of Imam Hussein (PBUH), introducing it, and refuting doubts surrounding it.

H.E. linked the level of targeting to the level of influence of Al-Hikma National Movement, noting a direct relationship between the two: the greater the influence, the greater the targeting, calling on the movement's members to accept this reality, and thanking Almighty Allah for making the Al-Hikma project influential and a decisive factor in the Iraqi equation, while stressing the need to sustain clarification and explanation.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirmed that clarity, explanation, introducing the project, and taking pride in it are principles capable of shielding the organization from confusion and accusations, calling for a review of Al-Hikma Movement's positions and how they were once met with objection from others, while experience has since proven the soundness and correctness of these positions, and affirming the importance of field presence and working to serve the public with all available means.

H.E. expressed his support for the state's direction toward maximizing revenues by increasing oil production, noting that the government is currently focusing on the electricity sector.
