

Sayyid Al-Hakeem Discusses Humanitarian, Livelihood Challenges Facing Migrants with Turkish Migration and Communities Foundation Head

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the Head of the Turkish Migration and Communities Foundation, Dr. Recep Sayar, accompanied by the Foundation's research team, where the two sides discussed the conditions of migrants and communities, and the challenges and problems facing members of these communities and migrants. The meeting also addressed ways of coordination and cooperation between states to develop comprehensive policies that address the living and humanitarian conditions of migrants, in addition to Iraqi-Turkish relations, where H.E. affirmed the importance of strengthening bilateral relations between the two countries, and enhancing cooperation between them based on the historical ties and shared bonds uniting the two peoples and the two neighboring countries.
