

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Al-Hikma's Goal for National Project Success, Beyond Individuals

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Leader of Al-Hikma National Movement, during his meeting with a large gathering of organizational leaderships of Al-Hikma National Movement in Al-Shaab area of Baghdad, offered his condolences on the anniversary of the martyrdom of Imam Al-Askari Al-Zaki (PBUH), and also congratulated them on the anniversary of the investiture of Imam Sahib Al-Asr wal-Zaman (may Allah hasten his noble reappearance), commending the efforts exerted by the members of Al-Hikma National Movement, including Al-Shaab division, in serving the project and the people of their areas. H.E. affirmed that many of Al-Hikma National Movement's projects that were subjected to targeting and doubt are today embraced by many political forces, calling for pride in this national project, noting that attention to youth is attention to society as a whole, and affirming that the goal of Al-Hikma National Movement is the success of the national project regardless of individuals.

H.E. called for precision in selecting individuals, and that priority be given to the competent, the active, and the influential among those who strive to serve the people, stressing that declaring one's belonging to Al-Hikma's project, its symbols, sacrifices, and history is of the utmost importance, and represents a necessary prelude to clarification and persuading others, also calling for media engagement to convey visions and ideas.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem pointed to the nature of the challenges besetting Iraq, foremost among them the economic challenge, expressing his optimism over the end of the Strait of Hormuz crisis given its impact on the global economy, calling for diversifying Iraqi oil export outlets alongside diversifying the economy by activating the productive sectors represented by agriculture, industry, tourism, investment, and modern technology.

H.E. reaffirmed his call for confining weapons to the hands of the state through dialogue and understanding, and handing them over to the Popular Mobilization Forces institution, reaffirming the continuation of the anti-corruption campaign.
