Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Affiliation with Martyred Leaders Responsibility Demanding Adherence to Their Approach, Legacy

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Leader of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a large gathering of the women organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in Babil Governorate, congratulating them on Sovereignty Day and National Day, and regarding the end of the mission of the International Coalition to Combat ISIS as a message of Iraq's recovery.

H.E. called for getting to know the project of Al-Hikma National Movement and then explaining it to people, stressing adherence to the approach of moderation and centrism, and championing the history of the eminent martyrs.

H.E. pointed to the approach of Imam Al-Hakeem (may Allah sanctify his soul) in raising awareness and spreading knowledge through libraries, and in sending representatives from among the scholars to the Iraqi governorates and the countries of the Islamic world to spread guidance and address the religious needs of the believers, calling for patience, attending to people's needs, and understanding their demands.

H.E. stressed the need to confront targeting by distinguishing between those who are confused and those with agendas, noting the importance of prioritizing the public interest over private interests, and explaining the importance of shouldering responsibility when affiliating with the martyred leaders, along with the importance of moving from the stage of expansion to the stage of impact.
