Sayyid Al-Hakeem Inspects Kirkuk Orphanage, Calls for Orphan Care, Attention to Elderly

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, inspected the old orphanage in Kirkuk, in the Al-Tis'een area, calling for attention to the elderly, urging children to look after their fathers and mothers, and calling for the care of orphans, valuing the efforts made in caring for them and raising them, and wishing them success and the ability to contribute to achieving development.

H.E. urged the orphans to focus on their studies and choose their friends well, explaining that Allah chose their fathers and compensated them with fathers and mothers from this noble home.
