Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Preserving Security Harder Than Achieving It, Unity Fortifies Iraq’s Achievements

From Taza Sub-district, at the guesthouse of Sheikh Aydin Ghani Tazli, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers’ Alliance, met with a gathering of sheikhs, dignitaries, and residents of Taza, commending the sub-district’s sacrifices, describing it as the sub-district of martyrs, and calling for honoring it with services, care, and attention.

H.E. explained that the dark era has passed by the grace of Allah and the sacrifices of Iraqis, noting that achieving security is very difficult and preserving it is more difficult, stressing unity to safeguard the achievements and fortify them against any attempt at infiltration, and calling for closing ranks and avoiding sectarian sentiments and a culture of tearing one another down.

H.E. renewed the description of the end of the International Coalition’s mission in Iraq as a message of Iraqi recovery, explaining that affection among the people draws down divine mercy, recalling the historic relationship that brought together the people of Taza and the family of Imam Al-Hakeem (may Allah sanctify his soul), stressing passing this relationship on to children and grandchildren, and explaining the nature of the economic challenge that led to choosing an economic figure to run the countr
