Sayyid Al-Hakeem Calls To Prioritize National Interest, Expedite Passing Priority Laws To Citizens

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the Secretary-General of the Jihad and Construction Movement, MP Jawad Al-Saedi, and a number of the Movement's leaders, and discussed with them the latest political developments in Iraq and the region, and the phase following the end of the mission of the International Coalition to fight ISIS and the restoration of sovereignty.

H.E. stressed unity of stance and internal cohesion to face the challenges besetting Iraq, especially the economic challenge, calling for continued security and intelligence work, and for repelling any attempt by ISIS to prove its existence.

H.E. emphasized the importance of reciprocal visits and communication with the various political forces to unify the vision toward the major national issues, calling for the necessity of passing important laws directly related to the interests of citizens, to ease their burden and improve their living and service conditions.
