Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Strengthening International Cooperation, Exchanging Experiences Support Iraq, Region Stability, Building

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received at his office in Baghdad the Minister of Defence and Military Veterans of the Republic of South Africa, Her Excellency Angie Motshekga, in the presence of the Army Commander and a number of leaders of the Ministry of Defence in South Africa.

The two sides discussed bilateral relations between the two countries and ways to develop them in a way that secures the interests of both peoples, with H.E. praising South Africa's experience in building, reconstruction, and overcoming societal crises.

H.E. outlined the nature of the phase in Iraq following the end of the mission of the International Coalition to fight ISIS, affirming that Iraq has overcome political, social, and security crises while facing an economic challenge resulting from regional events, and urging the countries of the world to contribute to restoring stability in the region and the world.
