Sayyid Al-Hakeem From Diyala: Political Project's Strength Stems From Members' Strength, Effective Influence Organizational, National Responsibility

As part of his tour of Diyala Governorate, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of the movement's organizational leaders in the governorate, explaining that the bond with the project is closer than the bond of kinship, and pointing to the roots of the Al-Hikma project, which extend back more than a hundred years.

H.E. called for taking pride in this honorable and shining history, filled with sacrifices, blood, and tears in the service of Iraq and its people, explaining that the depth of the roots of any political entity is evidence of the scale of its political project's influence, and affirming that the political approach of Al-Hikma Movement is one of clarity, steadfastness, and pursuit of Iraq's interest.

H.E. called for coexistence and solidarity among the homeland's components, recalling the movement's approach and its constant calls for communication, dialogue, and adopting the project of inclusion for everyone, which is an Islamic and Quranic approach. H.E. called for taking pride in this project, which has become acceptable to all Iraqi components and enjoys everyone's trust and good opinion, and for introducing people to the Al-Hikma national project and going out into the field to do so. H.E. held the members of Al-Hikma responsible for moving from the stage of expansion to the stage of influence, so that the movement becomes an effective political element in the political equation as in the social equation, explaining that the strength of the project is strength for its members and an important station in serving them.
