Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Solidarity to Face Economic Challenges, Regional War Repercussions

From Bani Saad sub-district in Diyala Governorate, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a gathering of sheikhs, dignitaries, and residents of the sub-district, recalling with them the relationship between Khan Bani Saad and the family of Imam Al-Hakeem (may Allah sanctify his soul), and praying for mercy upon the martyrs of Khan Bani Saad, remembering their jihad and their defense of the homeland and Islam. H.E. explained that Iraq had suffered from social, political, and sectarian challenges and overcame them by the grace of Allah and the determination of its people, commending the societal coexistence in Khan Bani Saad.

H.E. explained that the economic challenge contributed to the selection of Prime Minister Mr. Ali Al-Zaidi as an economic figure, affirming that confronting this challenge will put Iraq on the path of success and prosperity, and calling for solidarity to face it. H.E. pointed to the effects of the ongoing war in the region on Iraq as a result of declining resources, which led to delays in paying essential expenditures, and commended the efforts made to meet these expenditures despite the difficult economic situation.

H.E. pointed to the end of the International Coalition's missions in Iraq, calling for solidarity, cooperation, and sending messages of reassurance among the people of one country in order to move Iraq forward, and expressing optimism about its future, noting that Iraq is the axis of history, from its beginning to its end. H.E. called for taking pride in Iraq's history, civilization, and glories, preserving them, and handing them down to future generations.
