Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Internal Cohesion, Iraqi Diversity Preservation, Strong State, , National Stability Foundation

At the guesthouse of Sheikh Hussein Hamdan Al-Azzawi in the Al-Huwaish area, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a gathering of sheikhs and dignitaries, reviewing with them the economic challenges facing Iraq. H.E. stressed the need to support farmers and contractors, in addition to employees' salaries, explaining that this is essential to stimulate the economy and to provide job opportunities and food security. H.E. expressed hope that the crisis in the region will end soon, given its impact on the global economy, and commended all the efforts made to preserve stability in Iraq.

H.E. explained that the end of the International Coalition's missions is a message of recovery for Iraq, calling for shouldering responsibility toward the country through messages of reassurance, internal cohesion, and the preservation of rights through a fair equation, and stressing the preservation of Iraqi diversity and taking pride in it. H.E. commended the coexistence of the people of Diyala and their unity and cohesion, explaining that a strong state is founded on a strong and cohesive people. H.E. also commended the approaching approval of the budget, in an unprecedented development not seen in previous years, and called for optimism and for spreading messages of hope and positivity among the Iraqi people.
