Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Safeguarding Lawyers' Rights, Elevating Their Performance Strengthen Legal, Judicial System

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received at his office in Baghdad a delegation of the Bar Association headed by the Head of the Bar Association, Ms. Ahlam Al-Lami, and discussed with them the state of the legal profession and ways of advancing it and safeguarding the rights of its practitioners, with H.E. stressing the need for the Association's presence and effective participation in discussing and passing its forthcoming law in the Parliament.

H.E. affirmed the importance of treating lawyers fairly and granting them their rights, noting the need for complementary roles between the Bar Association, the Supreme Judicial Council, and other relevant institutions, in a manner that contributes to strengthening the standing of the legal profession, elevating its performance, and consolidating its role in supporting the country's legal and judicial system.
