Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Reviving Stalled Projects, Supporting Farmers, Contractors Contribute to Providing Job Opportunities, Strengthening Food Security

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received at his office in Baghdad Mr. Abdul Hussein Abtan, Head of Iqtidar Watan Party and Advisor to the Prime Minister for Reconstruction Affairs, and discussed with him ways of reviving stalled projects and benefiting from them anew. H.E. called for caring for the segment of employees, contractors, and farmers, given its role in stimulating the economy, providing job opportunities, and achieving food security.

H.E. stressed making use of the Regional Development Budget within the federal budget, calling for granting local governments their constitutional and legal powers and enabling them to deliver services to citizens, and also calling for complementary performance between local governments and state ministries.
