Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Tribal Sheikhs' Role to Reassure Components, Support State, Institutions

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received at his office in Baghdad Mr. Yahya Al-Adhari and Mr. Taklif Al-Mayali, recalling with them the historical relationship that brought the family of Imam Al-Hakeem (may Allah sanctify his soul) together with the two honorable families in many stances and junctures of Iraq's history.

H.E. affirmed the role played by tribal sheikhs and dignitaries in reassuring the components, consolidating civil peace, and supporting the state and its institutions.

H.E. stressed his support for Al-Diwaniyah Governorate, renewing his call to care for farmers and contractors just as employees are cared for, given the impact of this on driving the wheel of the economy and development, achieving food security, and providing job opportunities, explaining that the budget will take the governorate into account among its priorities.
