Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Moderation, Centrism Approach's Strength Unity, Stability for Iraq

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Leader of Al-Hikma National Movement, met a group of organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement at the Al-Bayaa Organizations Department in Baghdad. H.E. commended all efforts made in serving the Movement's national project, stressed that work must be purely for the sake of Allah the Almighty, guided them toward what is worthy of toil and sacrifice, and pointed to the events in the region and the nature of the obligations arising from them.

H.E. regarded the project of Al-Hikma National Movement, the project of moderation and centrism, as the optimal solution to all the country's crises and the way to move it into a phase of coexistence, prosperity, and economic revival. H.E. explained that the moderation project is an inclusive one around which everyone meets, regardless of their national and sectarian affiliations, and affirmed that the strength of the moderation and centrism approach is strength for Iraq. H.E. also called for patience in the face of adversity, for working with determination and cooperation, and for readiness for adversity.

H.E. stressed the need to distinguish the driven individual from others and to work on empowering and supporting such a person with a sincere intention for the sake of Allah the Almighty, calling for good use of resources and redoubled efforts. H.E. also stressed the need to become familiar with Al-Hikma National Movement's national project and its political stance, and to openly declare the Movement identity and take pride in it. H.E. further called for distinguishing among the categories targeted by Al-Hikma National Movement, namely the neutral, those for whom matters have become unclear, and those with agendas who are harmed by Al-Hikma's acceptance and sphere of influence, in addition to loyalists and admirers, and for taking into account the nature of the discourse addressed to each category.
