Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Calls to Legislate Important, Directly Impact Citizens Laws

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance received Dr. Mahmoud Al-Mashhadani, Speaker of the Iraqi Parliament, and extended his congratulations on the Parliament's vote of confidence in him. His Eminence highlighted the importance of sustaining and further strengthening the current stability, noting that Parliament has many responsibilities and steps to take toward this goal.

H.E. urged the passage of essential laws that directly impact citizens' lives and the activation of Parliament's legislative and oversight roles, emphasizing the need for coordinated efforts with the executive and judicial branches.

H.E. also stressed the value of using this period to address unresolved issues through dialogue, grounded in the constitution and existing laws. Additionally, H.E. reaffirmed the importance of monitoring regional developments and reiterated his call for an immediate end to the conflict against the Palestinian and Lebanese peoples, as well as for relief efforts to aid the displaced and rebuild affected cities.
